

Hosted by the Mayor and Council of the City of Rockville

HOMETOWN HOLIDAYS

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND

May 27-29, 2000 • Rockville Town Center

FALLSGROVE

Magruder's Center

Courthouse Center

FEDERAL REALTY
INVESTMENT TRUST
NYSE: FRT

Hometown Holidays also is hosted by American Legion Post 86, the Rockville Chamber of Commerce, and the Rockville Jaycees

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Hometown Holidays is a free event.

There are costs for food, children's activities, and carnival rides.

SATURDAY, MAY 27 • 3-11 P.M.

Rockville Town Center/Middle Lane

3 p.m.

Jolly Shows Carnival Rides and Games • Second Annual Pots, Pins, and Paper Arts and Crafts Show sponsored by Rockville Arts Place (RAP) • Roving Entertainers • Food Boulevard, and much more!

4 & 6 p.m.

Children's Stage Performances • Paul Hatfield, The Lost Vaudevillian

4:30 p.m. • Mambo Combo

7:15 p.m. • The Supremes Starring Mary Wilson

(video or audio recording not allowed)

9:15 p.m. • The Neville Brothers

(video or audio recording not allowed)

10:30 p.m. (approximately) •

Interactive Laser Light and Fireworks Spectacular

SUNDAY, MAY 28 • 3-10:30 P.M.

Rockville Town Center/Middle Lane

3 p.m.

Jolly Shows Carnival Rides and Games • Second Annual Pots, Pins, and Paper Arts and Crafts Show sponsored by Rockville Arts Place (RAP) • Roving Entertainers • Food Boulevard, and much more!

3:30 p.m. & 5:30 P.M.

Children's Stage Performances • Paul Hatfield, The Lost Vaudevillian

4 p.m. • Kevin Kline

6 p.m. • DaVinci's Notebook

7:45 p.m. • National Chamber Pops Orchestra (NCO)

8:45 p.m. • NCO with Special Performance by Yesterday - A Tribute to the Beatles

10 p.m. (approximately) •

Interactive Laser Light and Fireworks Spectacular

MONDAY, MAY 29 • 9:30 A.M.-5 P.M.

North Washington Street & Middle Lane

9:30 a.m. • Memorial Day Ceremony

Grand Marshal: Rear Admiral Lillian Fishburne

10:30 a.m. (approximately) •
56th Annual Memorial Day Parade

Master of Ceremonies: Holly Morris, Fox Channel 5 Reporter

noon -5 p.m. • Jolly Shows Carnival Rides and Games

Transportation and Parking

Enjoy a hassle free Hometown Holidays by taking Metro's Red Line to the Rockville station or by biking. If you choose Metro, exit on the Rockville Pike side, and you'll find Hometown Holidays across the street on Middle Lane. If you choose biking, bike racks will be located at the corner of Maryland Ave. and E. Montgomery Ave. at Courthouse Sq.

If you prefer to drive, parking will be available in many places around Rockville Town Center, including the jury parking lot at the corner of Jefferson St. and Monroe St.; the Fleet St. parking garage behind the Council Office Building; and the lot at 50 W. Montgomery Ave.

If You Need Assistance

The City of Rockville strives to provide access to all programs and services to everyone, regardless of disability. Contact the ADA Coordinator at 301-309-3300 with any questions or concerns regarding access to Hometown Holidays.

Sign Language Interpreters at Concerts

The City of Rockville will offer sign language interpreters for Saturday and Sunday nights' concerts and Monday's Ceremony and Parade. For information, call 301-309-3300, TDD 301-309-3187.

General Information

- Video and audio recorders and cameras are prohibited during Saturday or Sunday evenings' concerts.
- Bring beach chairs or blankets to ensure comfortable seating, and be considerate so that those around you can see the show too.
- Lost children or parents should report to First Aid/Information Booth.
- For safety reasons, bikes, skateboards, or in-line skates can't be ridden in the event area.
- No politicking is allowed.
- For your safety, no glass containers or animals should be brought to Hometown Holidays.
- Most events will take place rain or shine. In case of inclement weather, call the Special Events Line at 301-309-3334 for cancellation information.

SATURDAY

The Neville Brothers

Saturday, May 27, 9:15 p.m.

The Neville Brothers helped lay the foundation for the entire New Orleans' music community and, at the same time, spread their own unique sound all over the world. Together, these four talented brothers – Aaron, Art, Charles, and Cyril – have developed a legion of fans that are drawn to their irresistible Crescent City rhythms, which blend African, Native American, hip-hop, French, Mardi Gras, Indian, and parade music.

During their illustrious careers, the brothers have sold millions of records worldwide and have had gold and platinum records in six different countries. Their hits include Tell it Like it Is, Fire on the Bayou, and Brother John/Iko Iko.

Their funky and riveting music has been hailed by music writers in nearly every major periodical in the country, and their live performances are legendary. According to Rolling Stone Magazine, their newest album, Valence Street, has conviction and charm and is loaded with spicy funk, heavenly ballads, and righteous roots.

The Supremes Starring Mary Wilson

Saturday, May 27, 7:15 p.m.

Dubbed the most successful female singing group in the world, The Supremes had 12 number one hits including Where Did Our Love Go, Baby Love, and Stop! In the Name of Love. They were the only American act to have five consecutive number one hits and, in the end, they had 33 songs reach the top 40. Mary Wilson was the only member to remain with the group from the beginning to the end of their amazing career.

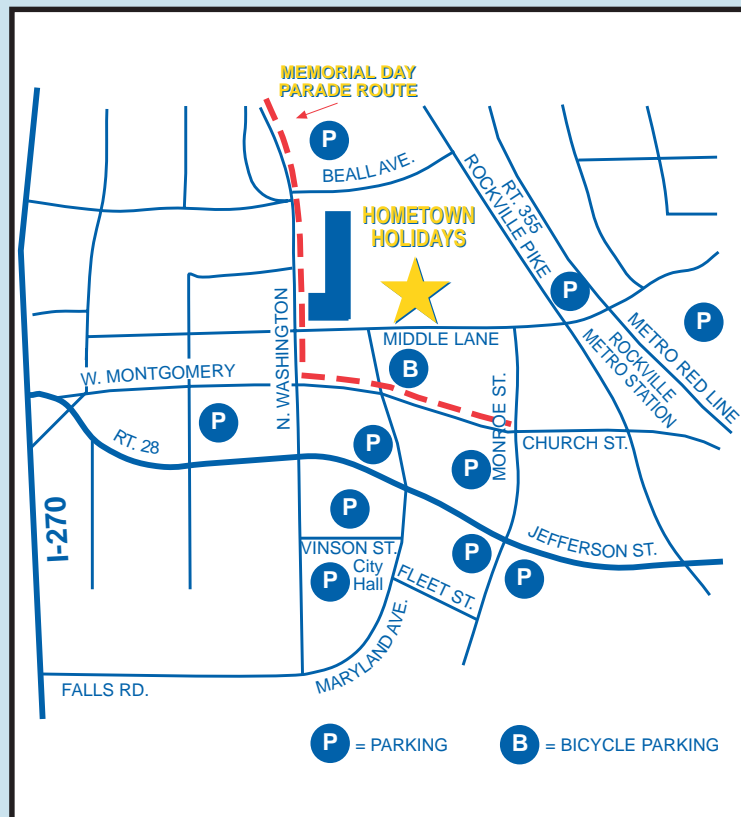

Since her work with the Supremes, Wilson has gone on to sing not only pop music, but jazz, rock, R&B, and dance. In 1988, she was the first female rock star to accept her lifetime achievement award from the Rock N' Roll Hall of Fame. In 1995, the Supremes were given their own exhibit for the museum opening in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mambo Combo

Saturday, May 27, 4:30 p.m.

This five-member band specializes in its own brand of Latin and Caribbean sound. They play impossible-to-stand-still sambas, merengues, cha-chas, and tangos. You can bet there'll be a congo line. Come join the party with Mambo Combo.

SUNDAY

National Chamber Pops Orchestra (NCO)

Sunday, May 28, 7:45 p.m.

A Hometown Holidays favorite, NCO will return for its 12th performance at the festivities. NCO, under the direction of Piotr Gajewski, is the area's fastest growing professional orchestra and a resident group of Rockville's F. Scott Fitzgerald Theatre. They will perform a tribute to American composers including Aaron Copland's Lincoln Portrait, a heroic musical selection with uplifting spoken words, narrated by Barry Moultrie, Youth Pastor, Mt. Calvary Baptist Church

NCO with special performance by Yesterday – A Tribute to the Beatles

Sunday, May 28, 8:45 p.m.

Along with NCO, Yesterday – A Tribute to the Beatles will take you on a "magical mystery tour" complete with exciting vocals and witty stage mannerisms.

If you missed the original Beatlemania that swept the country in 1964, you won't want to miss these four young lads.

Da Vinci's Notebook

Sunday, May 28, 6 p.m.

Da Vinci's Notebook, a local a cappella quartet, takes four part harmony and stands it on its ear. They offer their own eclectic blend of a capella harmony fused with elements of doo-wop, jazz, bluegrass, calypso, and rock that will have you dancing.

Kevin Kline

Sunday, May 28, 4 p.m.

Kevin Kline, Calvert County's piano man, has been compared with the likes of Billy Joel and Elton John. An up-and-coming singer and songwriter, he has left his mark on many of the east coast's most famous venues with his high-energy performance.

RAP Joins Hometown Holidays Fun

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

Rockville Arts Place (RAP) will join the City's Hometown Holidays celebration with its second annual Pots, Pins, and Paper Arts and Crafts Show.

There will be something for everyone's taste – from ceramics, jewelry, fiber, and paper, to small sculptures, drawings, prints, and paintings. Many items will be priced under $50. The sale will feature the works of local artists. The show's hours are 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., on Saturday, and noon to 7 p.m. on Sunday, May 28. If you miss it at Hometown Holidays, you can still see the show until June 10.

Also during Hometown Holidays 2000, RAP will sponsor tents with a mini-gallery, artists' demonstration, and children's activities including a graffiti wall and a float from 3 to 8 p.m.

Jolly Shows Rides, Games, and Attractions

SATURDAY (3-11 P.M.), SUNDAY (3-10:30 P.M.), AND MONDAY (NOON-5 P.M.)

Fill this Memorial Day weekend with the thrills and chills of Jolly Show's rides, games, and attractions at Hometown Holidays 2000.

For nearly four decades, Jolly Shows has been entertaining families in the Mid-Atlantic region with high quality amusement rides, challenging games, and tasty foods. Its newest attraction is the electrifying Kamikaze. Looming tall above the crowd, the Kamikaze swings its riders higher and higher until they turn upside-down. Then, it makes a hair-raising 360 degree turn.

In addition to thrill rides, the midway also features such classics as bumper cars, the Scrambler, Tilt-a-Whirl, fun houses, and other timeless favorites.

Look for: Kamikaze • Bumper Cars • The Scrambler • Tilt-a-Whirl • Fun Houses • Peter Paul Dragons • Ferris Wheel • Helicopters • Dragon Wagon

Interactive Laser Light and Fireworks Spectacular

SATURDAY, MAY 27, 10:30 P.M. (APPROXIMATELY)
SUNDAY, MAY 28, 10 P.M. (APPROXIMATELY)

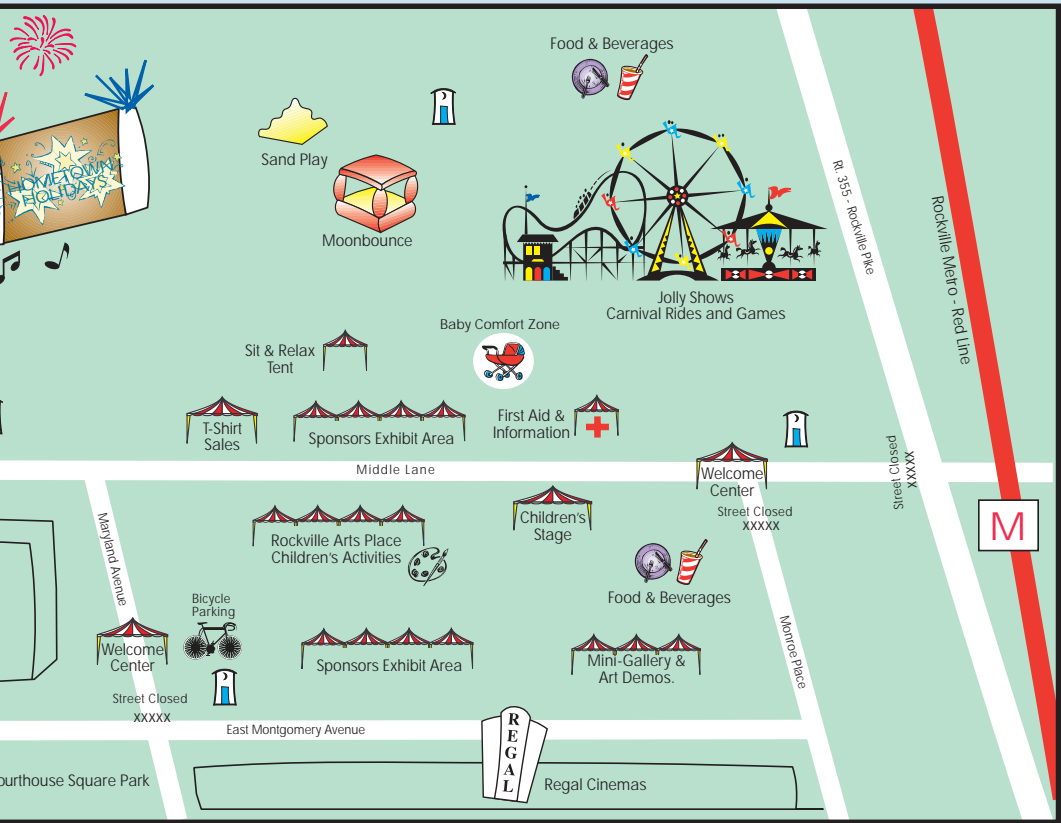

Be dazzled and delighted at Rockville's Hometown Holidays 2000 with an interactive laser light and fireworks display on Saturday, May 27, and Sunday, May 28. The display will take place at approximately 10:30 p.m. on Saturday and 10 p.m. on Sunday.

This year's laser light show, presented by Advanced Entertainment Technologies (AET) of Baltimore, will tantalize you with interactive laser characters.

AET's spectacular laser light show will feature an Inflatable Tower Vision (ITV) screen is more than seven stories tall. The screen, which is the largest cold inflatable in the United States and perhaps the world, houses an array of intelligent lights and special effects that make the screen come to life. The aerial beams used are the most powerful in the laser display industry, and its green neon beams are so bright that they have been seen as far as 25 miles away.

Both Saturday and Sunday evenings will come to a close with a glittering fireworks display that will fill the sky with an array of colors and sounds. The fireworks finales will be the work of Zambelli Internationale, the first family of fireworks.

MONDAY

Memorial Day Ceremony

Monday, May 29, 9:30 a.m.

Rockville will honor America's war heroes with its annual Memorial Day Ceremony, which will feature performances by the Rockville Concert Band, directed by Vincent Patterson, and the Rockville Community Chorus, directed by Bryan Seith.

Following the presentation of colors by the Rockville American Legion Post 86 Color Guard, Mayor Rose Krasnow will lead the Pledge of Allegiance. Rear Admiral Lillian Fishburne will serve as the Grand Marshal of the Memorial Day Parade.

American Legion Post 86 Commander Clarence Sterling will lead the wreath-laying ceremony, which will be followed by a moment of silence and a 21-gun salute. Participants include: American Legion Post 86; American Legion Auxiliary Unit 86; American Legion Post 171; Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 12; Fleet Reserve Association, Triangle Branch 182; Washington-Rockville Elks, Lodge 15; Prince Hall Shriners, Anwar Temple 219; Pearl Harbor Survivors Association of Maryland; Vietnam Veterans Association; and Sister City Corporation, Pinneberg, Germany. The ceremony will end with the playing of Taps by a member of the Rockville Concert Band.

Grand Marshal – Rear Admiral Lillian Fishburne

The first African-American woman to reach flag rank and a former Rockville resident, Fishburne currently is assigned to staff duty at the Space, Information Warfare, Command and Control Directorate, Chief of Naval Operations, Washington D.C.

Over the years, she has served at the Naval Air Test Facility in Lakehurst, N.J., and the Navy Recruiting District in Miami, Fla. She also was the Officer in Charge of the Naval Telecommunications Center in Great Lakes, Ill. Then, at the Joint Allied Command and Control Matters Branch, at the Command, Control, Communications Directorate, Chief of Naval Operations, she served as Assistant Head, Joint Allied Command and Control Matters Branch.

Fishburne's next assignment was Executive Officer, Naval Communication Station, Yokosuka, Japan, and then she was assigned to the Command, Control, and Communications Directorate, Chief of Naval Operations as a Special Projects Officer. Later she served as Commanding Officer, Naval Computer and Telecommunications Station, in Key West, and then as Chief, Command and Control Systems Support Division at the Command, Control, Communications and Computer Systems Directorate, the Joint Staff, Washington D.C. Finally, before assuming her current position, she commanded the Naval Computer and Telecommunications Area Master Station, Eastern Pacific, Wahiawa, Hawaii.

Fishburne has received the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit, two Meritorious Service Medals, two Navy Commendation Medals, and the Navy Achievement Medal.

56th Annual Memorial Day Parade –

Monday, May 29, 10:30 a.m. (approximately)

Rockville's 56th annual Memorial Day Parade will officially step off from North Washington Street and Martins Lane and make its way down North Washington Street to Courthouse Square with FOX Channel 5's Holly Morris serving as Master of Ceremonies.

A bevy of drill teams, marching bands, clowns, majorettes, community groups, and floats will amuse the audience lining the route. There also will be specialty units, including military units, horses, and more.

Master of Ceremonies Holly Morris, FOX Channel 5 Reporter

Morris started as a reporter for WTTG-TV in December of 1998. Each morning on Fox5 Morning News, she reports live from somewhere in the community either covering a breaking news story, previewing an event, or learning more about a local community as part of a weekly Neighborhood News segment.

Previously, she was an anchor/reporter in Lexington, Ky., where she won three regional Emmys, including one for best anchor and one for best feature reporter. Before working in the Bluegrass, Holly was in Steubenville, Ohio, where she got her on-air start as a reporter.

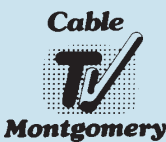

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS

SATURDAY TITLE SPONSOR

MARYLAND LOTTERY

SUNDAY TITLE SPONSOR

MONDAY TITLE SPONSOR

FALLSGROVE

MAJOR

Magruder's Center

Courthouse Center

FEDERAL REALTY
INVESTMENT TRUST
NYSE: FRT

MEDIA

ROCKVILLE GAZETTE

BENEFACTOR

KING FARM

PATRON

allfirst Bank

FCNB Bank

Long Fence

Magruder's Grocery Stores

Montgomery College

Rockville Cultural Arts Commission

Washington Air Compressor Rental Co.

SUPPORTER

Armand's Pizza Express of Rockville

California Tortilla • Centergate King Farm

The Columbia Bank • RedGate Golf Course

Rockville Municipal Swim Center

Venable Attorneys at Law

West*Group

CONTRIBUTOR

Shulman, Rogers, Gandal, Pordy & Ecker, PA

Let's Connect Wireless

FRIEND

Steven J. Karr, AIA, Inc. • Potomac Valley Nursing and Wellness Center • Sunrise Assisted Living • VIP Travel

GIFTS

Steve, Donna & Hayes Edwards • Fait & Malament
The Romer Family • Twinbrook Citizen's Association
Van Grack, Axelson & Williamowsky

ALSO HOSTED BY

Rockville American Legion-Post 86,
the Rockville Chamber of Commerce, and the Rockville Jaycees.